CHURCH NEWS

Can we Count You In? Volunteer canvassers have been busy meeting with church members and friends to hear and share their stories. To date they have received 79 pledges from members and friends, compared with 140 who pledged last year. If you haven't met with a canvasser or made a pledge yet, please do so as soon as possible. You can learn more about this year's canvass, progress, and stories here.

Coffee, Conversation & More: Our first CC&More of the year will begin at 9:15 a.m. this Sunday, November 3 in the Romer Room. Sue Powers will present the current and pressing issues of climate change, with discussion to follow. All are encouraged to attend and learn where we might go from here to address the changes in the planet, locally and globally. Treats and coffee will be on hand.

Let's Talk About Race: This 3-part workshop led by the Rev. James Galasinski will explore how our own cultural background influences our perceptions of others. Please sign up in advance by email or calling 315-386-2498, and come prepared to share your stories and your discomfort.

Campus Kitchens Connection: We are working more closely with SLU's Campus Kitchens Project, which serves free hot meals in our social room every Monday night. If you can volunteer to help with a shift, please contact Carol Pynchon or Pat Alden. Any non-perishable food donations you put in the "Feed the Need" box will distributed to our guests to take home after Monday's meal.

Grace House: is seeking donations of personal hygiene products, cleaning supplies, and paper products for the women who have just arrived at the house. Please place your donations in the purple Grace House bin in the social room.
