Hymn #170 We Are a Gentle, Angry People

Chalice Extinguishing

This is the message of our faith
To act with passion in the face of injustice.
To love with courage in the midst of life's joy and sorrows.
To piece together the puzzle of our faith in beloved community.
May it empower our hearts until we are together again.

Postlude La Batringue, a Quebec folk dance tune performed by Lena Frank

*After a few moments we will be ushered into our breakout rooms.
You are free to end your participation in the "meeting" whenever you want.*

Many thanks to today's worship team: Zoom team – The Rev. James Galasinski, Carol Zimmerman, DRE, Shelby Hunkins, ADRE, Doug Rubio; Guest Presenters – Zoya Kocho-Williams, Finley Thomas, Sarah Oakley, the Terrell family; Musician – Betsy Kepes

Let's Talk About Race: June 10, 17, 24, and 30 from 7-8:30 pm via Zoom. Limited to 10 people and facilitated by the Rev. James Galasinski, we will explore our own cultural background and how that influences our perception of others. We will learn about and examine white privilege, implicit bias, systems of oppression, and intersectionality. However, the main component of this class is having an open and honest dialogue about race. Being willing and open to sharing your personal stories and unpacking our cluttered past is a must. Please bring your discomfort. Sign up by emailing office@uucantonny.org
