Faith Engagement

Our children will be gathering on Sunday, April 25 at 1pm via Zoom to hear the story "How a Seed Becomes a Plant" and then we will be planting the nasturtium seeds that were part of your home kit this month.

Our Coming of Age youth will gather on Sunday, April 25 at 3pm via Zoom. We will be exploring UU history.

Sermon Topics Listening Session: The worship team invites you to join them after worship this Sunday, April 25 in a breakout room to gather themes for future worship services and sermons. Which topics would you like to learn more about?

StimUUlus Campaign: You may have heard about our recent to campaign to build up our reserve account. Did you know they set a goal to reach $36,000 in total? Can you help?

April SASO to benefit Gardenshare Bonus Bucks this Sunday, April 25. Many of you are familiar with this local not-for-profit, which supports local farmers and helps provide us all with access to locally grown food. GardenShare also supports low-income families helping them to access this good food. Learn more about what they do here.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Volunteers needed for C&CP: The Canton Church and Community Program needs volunteers, both to fill immediate needs in the thrift shop and food pantry, and to be available as substitutes and for special projects. Important, meaningful volunteer work. Get more information and sign up by contacting one of our three representatives to the program: Pat Alden, Sue Hayden, Cliff Westerling

Campus Kitchens Project is still serving to-go meals every Monday evening from our parking lot. There will be a shortage of college helpers in the coming weeks. If you can help prepare or distribute the meals, please email the Ashlee Downing-Duke to sign up.

Poetry Reading with Martin Espada: All are welcome to attend this event hosted by SUNY Potsdam, organized by our own Oscar Sarmiento, on Thursday, April 29 at 6 p.m. Register here.
