

NEWS FOR UU!

Join our UUGeo Team for our first CITO in the North Country of NYS on Saturday, June 26th from 1:00 to 3:00 pm. We will be cleaning and clearing the various nature trails at the Red Barn Wetland Preserve in Morristown, NY, which features easy scenic trails, wildlife viewing, and a blue heron rookery. Trail maintenance tools and trash bags will be provided. Please wear protective clothing and bring work gloves. Enjoy finding four new caches while we clean and clear the 1.8 miles of trails. Refreshments provided at the conclusion. Be aware for those who are approaching from the east (Ogdensburg), the bridge is out on River Rd, so you should turn right on Main St. from Rte 37, then left on Bay St., and then left on River Rd. For more information about the preserve, including a trail map and directions, visit <https://www.stlctrails.com/trails/trail/red-barn-preserve>

The Path Forward- Details and Instructions about our Reopening Process

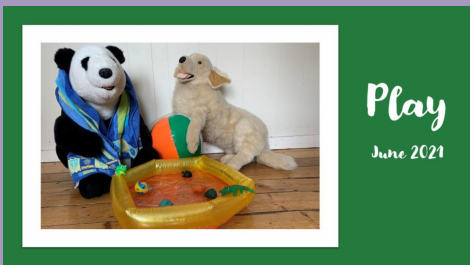

This Sunday, June 27, 2021

10:30 a.m., Until Love Wins
The Rev. Dr. Susan Frederick-Gray

We will stream the Sunday worship from the UUA General Assembly, so there will be no in person attendance at the church.
